4-H Summer Adventure Days are educational activities sponsored by Randolph County 4-H through North Carolina Cooperative Extension designed to make the most of summer vacation by teaching youth essential life skills while having fun! Activities will be held at the Liberty Elementary School, Liberty in addition to locations throughout the county. Please read each description carefully for age of participation, costs, time, and items to bring to class.

4-H is open to all boys and girls 5-18 years of age. Each class includes the age of youth eligible to participate, as well as class costs, time and items to bring to class. If special accommodations are required, please notify our office, two weeks prior to your scheduled class.

Registration begins Wednesday, May 28, 4:00 – 6:30 at Liberty Elementary School

TO REGISTER: Complete all registration forms and return with your check made payable to RANDOLPH COUNTY 4-H. Each child must have their own registration form and Medical Release form. All medical release forms MUST be notarized before your child may participate in any of our summer classes. A one time $5.00 per person registration fee is charged in addition to the course fee.

All class descriptions, medical forms, code of conduct, and registration forms may be downloaded from our website at http://Randolph.ces.ncsu.edu/ Click on Youth & 4-H and follow the links to the summer forms. REGISTRATION CANNOT BE TAKEN ONLINE.

REFUNDS: All fees are non-refundable unless a class is filled to capacity or is cancelled (any refunds will be processed at the conclusion of Summer Adventure Days). For more information please contact Dawn at the 4-H office at 336.318.6000.

Barbara Dunn Swanson
Extension Agent
4-H Youth Development

Persons with disabilities and persons with limited English proficiency may request accommodations to participate by calling our office at 336-318-6000 or in person at the Randolph County Extension Office at least 7 days prior to the event.