

SPRING / SUMMER MAY / JUNE

Up To Date: Randolph County 4-H

NC Cooperative Extension, 112 W Walker Ave., Asheboro, NC 27203

(336) 318.6000 FAX: (336) 318.6011

WEBSITE: <http://randolph.ces.ncsu.edu>

4-H BLOG: <http://randolphcounty4h.blogspot.com>

EMAIL: Barbara_swanson@ncsu.edu

Like Us on FACEBOOK: Randolph County Cooperative Extension

Dear 4-H Family,

The school year will come to close soon and then summer will be here! We will have our 4-H summer adventure classes ready and hope that if time will allow, you will plan to attend a few of those classes.

State 4-H Congress is coming up in June, 4-H Camp is planned for July along with Hunter Safety Education in August, just some of the activities that are happening here at 4-H.

Read the 4-H newsletter at your next 4-H club meeting, to bring everyone in your club up to speed! Enjoy the warmer weather!

Sincerely,

Barbara Dunn Swanson
Extension 4-H Agent

Asheboro Summer Adventures:

Registration for our 4-H Summer Adventures Programs will be held on May 19 here at the Extension Office. We will be also uploading our classes to our 4-H webpage. Be sure to check back often to stay updated!

HAPPY 100 YEARS EXTENSION!

Did you know, Cooperative Extension is celebrating 100 years of service? For 100 years we have provided education to many youth and families. 4-H is proud to be connected to the Cooperative Extension system and looks forward to 100 more years of "making the best better", right here in Randolph County!

2014 Southeast Dairy Youth Retreat.

This retreat is being held in Blacksburg VA, July 13 - 17.

Clever Clovers 4-H Club

The group of youth meeting for several months at Providence Grove High School have selected a name for their club: Clever Clovers.

We want to welcome them to Randolph County 4-H! They have elected officers and have a plan for fun and action. The April meeting included a bread making workshop and the May meeting will include FISHING! The group will meet at White's Memorial Baptist Church in Franklinville. For more information about the Clever Clovers give Barb a call at 318-6000.

HERE ARE PICTURES OF THE CLEVER CLOVERS IN ACTION

State 4-H Congress

If you are a 4-H member 13 – 18 years of age you are eligible to attend State 4-H Congress! This week long event is held June 21 - 24 on the Campus of North Carolina State University in Raleigh. While at 4-H Congress, youth meet new friends, elect state officers, complete a community service project and participate in workshops that increase their citizenship and leadership skills! The cost of 4-H Congress for Randolph County 4-H members is just $100, which covers housing, most meals, program expenses, travel cost and insurance. Deadline to register for this event is Friday, May 16.

Bike Safety Education

4-H has been leading workshops on Bicycle Safety Education in the Asheboro City Schools 4th grade classrooms.

4-H Camp Scheduled

4-H members from Randolph County will be traveling to Betsy Jeff Penn 4-H Environmental Education Center to participate in 4-H camp from June 29 – July 4. While at camp youth will hike, swim learn archery, and complete an art project and fellowship with other 4-H members from across the state. Cost to attend camp is $300 which includes meals, lodging, all activities, insurance and transportation. Scholarship money has been received from Farm Bureau to assist with a portion of the cost to participate. If you are interested in attending camp, contact our office at 318.6000. Space is limited!

Congratulations go to.....

Congratulations to all youth who participated in the State 4-h Dairy Quiz Bowl competition and Skill-A-Thon contests!

Holy Cows members included: Sarah Thomas, Erin Holy Cows members included: Sarah Thomas, Erin Cox, Meghan Teague, Scottie Teague, Kari Cox, Will Dinsmore, Rebekah Seawell, Sarah Gregg, Melanie Garner, Alek King, Jordan Lester, Isaac Prater, Kyle Richardson, Shelby Moser, Matthew Oldham, Jared Reeder, Gabrielle Stephens, Awna Gregg, Drew Wilson, Laura LeGlue and Dalton Staley. Country Kids 4-H club members participating included: Rachel, Jesse and Shenan Osborne, Garrett and Kaley Allred and Bailey Strider.

Congratulations also goes to the following youth who participated in the Central Piedmont Livestock Show in April: Olivia Hardy, Wesley Dobbins, Reid Harmon, Emmy Gantt and Rylee Schofield. Great job Wesley for showing the Grand Champion Feeder Steer!

Congratulations to the following youth for participating in 4-H District Activity Day in Surry county on Saturday, April 12: Hayden Thomas,, Shenan, Curtis and Jesse Osborne, Evan Gunter, Kaeli Chapman, Kaley Allred, Raven Austin, Harlee Miller, Ronnie Days, Nadia Griffin, Genesis Lowery, Tyra McGriff and Bailey Frazier. We would also like to congratulate Hayden Thomas, Evan Gunter and Kaley Allred as each earned a spot to present at the State Finals on June 21 in Raleigh.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE COUNTRY KIDS LIVESTOCK CLUB OFFICERS FOR THEIR FOOD SCULPTURE TO SUPPORT CHRISTIANS UNITED OUTREACH IN ASHEBORO!

In addition, the Country Kids Livestock Club recently complete a spring yard clean up for a senior in Asheboro! Way to Go friend!

4-H County Council

Youth ages 11-18 help plan county 4-H events such as Achievement Night, Talent Show and Community Service Activities. Members also help promote 4-H involvement and take on officer roles in the council. Please contact Jody Terry at 318-6000 or jody_terry@ncsu.edu for questions.

A special thanks to Michael Harmon, club leader for the Trinity 4-H club for working closely with 4-H members on their 4-H goat project.

